"Assam has achieved another milestone": CM Sarma on fulfilling target of 1 lakh govt jobs

GUWAHATI : The Assam Government has achieved a significant milestone in the state's employment sector by fulfilling its 2021 election promise of providing 1 lakh government jobs, Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma announced on Monday.

The announcement came after 23,956 appointment letters were handed over to new recruits, bringing the total number of government jobs created since 2021 to 1,24,345.

Taking to his social media handle on X, CM Sarma announced, "Assam has achieved another milestone. In 2021, we came to power promising 1 lakh government jobs. Today, with the handover of 23,956 appointment letters, Assam has offered 1,24,345 jobs till date. With this, we have fulfilled a longstanding demand of our teachers."

"By May 2025, we will create 50,000 more jobs, taking the total jobs to 2 lakhs. Each of these jobs has been delivered without a single instance of corruption," the post added.

The ceremonial distribution of permanent teacher appointment letters to 23,956 contractual teachers under Samagra Shiksha, was held at Khanapara Veterinary College Field in Guwahati.

Earlier, Assam Education Minister Ranaj Pegu posted on X and said, "Promise fulfilled! The teachers will be posted in the schools where they were previously serving as SSA/Statepool contractual teachers. Candidates on the 'withheld' list are advised to contact the Director of Elementary Education with their documents."

"Following the High Court's order in WA 291/2024 on 30th August, 2024, which lifted the stay on the advertisement dated 5th August 2024, for the Special Recruitment Drive for experienced SSA and State Pool contractual teachers, the Assam government is proceeding with the selection process. A total of 27790 candidates have applied, and the Education Department has completed the verification and selection process," he said.

During the 2021 assembly polls in the state, Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma had promised to give one lakh government jobs in the state.

According to the government data, till August 26 this year, appointment letters were distributed to 1,00,389 candidates (including Government of Assam employees employed in Bodoland Territorial Council and Karbi Anglong Autonomous Council).

Senior advocate calls for faster infrastructure development to support judiciary, responding to President Murmu's concerns

NEW DELHI : Senior advocate Pramod Kumar Dubey on Monday emphasised the urgent need to develop infrastructure in response to concerns raised by President Droupadi Murmu.

He highlighted the importance of appointing more judges and providing them with basic infrastructure to expedite the delivery of justice. Speaking to ANI, Dubey stated, "The government must take the initiative to provide the necessary infrastructure. In Delhi, we haven't encountered courts reluctant to hear cases. If witnesses are present, the matter is heard; judges are on the dais, addressing cases daily. However, the burden on the judiciary is immense." When asked about the perception that powerful individuals avoid punishment, he responded, "It's not true that the wealthy are evading justice. If you look at the past, many industrialists, politicians, and high-ranking bureaucrats are behind bars. Their money or power doesn't exempt them from the law." He further added, "The judiciary remains unbiased, hearing and resolving cases impartially. Legal assistance is available at every level, so it's incorrect to claim that the underprivileged are denied help." Dubey also emphasised the need for government action in raising awareness among rural populations about their legal rights. "The government must conduct seminars and educate people about their rights. Without awareness, they won't approach the judiciary. As for the judges, they are not biased. The Indian judicial system is superior to many others globally. However, judges need better infrastructure, including basic amenities like coolers, especially when working."

BJP's membership drive isn't just a ritual, it is expansion of our family: PM Modi

NEW DELHI : Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday said that Bharatiya Janata Party's membership drive isn't just a ritual but expansion of the family and also an ideological movement.

PM Modi, who launched the BJP's 2024 membership drive by renewing his membership, said that the membership drive and the organizational structure that will be established during this period will coincide with the implementation of 33 per cent reservation in Legislative Assemblies and Parliament.

"If this 33 per cent reservation for women is to be introduced during this time, then in my membership drive, can we include all those individuals who can help my party ensure that the maximum number of women are elected as MLAs and MPs, thus making this crucial decision a success?" he asked.

"This very membership drive isn't just a ritual. It's an expansion of our family..It isn't a game of numbers. It doesn't matter the numbers we achieve. This membership drive is an ideological and emotional movement," he added.

PM Modi received his BJP membership renewal certificate from party president JP Nadda at the 'Sanghatan Parva, Sadasyata Abhiyan 2024' here.

The Prime Minister said from the days of Bharatiya Jana Sangh till now, "we have made all possible efforts to bring a new political culture in the country."

"Another round of 'Sadasyata Abhiyan' is beginning today. From Bharatiya Jana Sangh till now, we have made all possible efforts to bring a new political culture in the country. The organisation or political party through which people give power, that unit, that organisation, that party... if it doesn't follow democratic values, if internal democracy doesn't live in it, then situation arises which is faced by several other political parties today," the Prime Minister said.

He recalled his early days into the party and said that he painted Lotus on the walls and always had faith that Lotus will bloom in people's hearts.

"When I was not in politics, at the time of Jana Sangh, our workers used to paint 'diya' (symbol of Jana Sangh) on walls with enthusiasm... and leaders of several political parties used to

Act East Policy: PM Modi to embark on visit to Brunei, Singapore

NEW DELHI : Prime Minister Narendra Modi will embark on two-nation visit to Brunei and Singapore from September 3-5 to to promote economic, strategic and cultural relations with the vast Asia-Pacific region at different levels.Ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's upcoming visit to Brunei and Singapore, the Ministry of External Affairs shared a video on its official X handle regarding the importance of the two-nation visit which will take place from September 3-5.

This trip will not only be PM Modi's first visit to Brunei but also the first bilateral visit by an Indian Prime Minister to the Southeast Asian nation. The visit underscores a milestone in the 40-year diplomatic relationship between India and Brunei.

During the first leg of his visit, PM Modi will travel to Brunei, where he is scheduled to meet with Sultan Haji Hassanal Bolkiah.

https://x.com/MEAIndia/status/1830586082968342750

The Sultan previously visited India in January 2018 as a Chief Guest for the Republic Day parade and participated in the ASEAN-India Commemorative Summit, the highlights of the video shared by MEA stated. PM Modi and Sultan Bolkiah last interacted during the 18th ASEAN-India Summit in October 2021 and on the sidelines of the East Asia Summit in Manila in November 2017.The visit to Brunei highlights the robust relationship between the two nations, particularly in trade, defence, and cultural exchanges. Bilateral trade reached USD 286.2 million in the fiscal year 2023-24. Defence cooperation remains a cornerstone of the relationship, with regular exchanges, training, and joint exercises.

Recent visits by Indian naval vessels such as INS Jalashwa, INS Shivalik, and ICGS Samudra Paheredar emphasize strong maritime relations between India and Brunei. Moreover, cultural and people-to-people ties are also significant, with approximately 14,000 Indians residing in Brunei. Indian professionals, including doctors and teachers, have earned considerable respect and fostered goodwill for India within the Bruneian community.

During the visit, Prime Minister Modi will engage in bilateral discussions on all aspects of bilateral relations and cooperation with Brunei and explore new areas of collaboration.Indian diaspora is deeply entrenched in Brunei, despite the country's small size and economy. He noted that there are many different communities in Brunei, including Tamilians, Malayalis, Sindhis, Punjabis, Marathas, and Gujaratis.

Brunei is an important partner in India's 'Act East' Policy and its vision for the Indo-Pacific. Following Brunei, PM Modi will head to Singapore for the second leg of his visit from September 4-5."This will be PM Modi's fifth visit to Singapore, having previously travelled there in 2015 and 2018. His recent meeting with Singaporean Prime Minister Lawrence Wong in September 2022 further solidified the close relationship between the two countries," the text in the video shared by MEA read.

"Singapore stands as India's largest trade partner in ASEAN, with bilateral trade amounting to USD 36.6 billion in 2022-23. It is also the largest source of Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) into India, with FDI equity inflows totalling USD 11.774 billion. Cumulative FDI from Singapore to India since April 2000 has reached USD 159.943 billion, while India's FDI outflow to Singapore stands at USD92.051 billion," the video further added.

The two countries have collaborated extensively in various fields, including fintech, with the linkage of India's UPI and Singapore's PayNow launched in February 2023."Defence cooperation remains strong, with recent activities including the Defence Policy Dialogue in New Delhi in October 2023, Indian Air Force Sarang Helicopter Display Team's participation in the Singapore Air Show 2024, and the 30th SIMBEX naval exercise held in Singapore in September 2023. Additionally, skill centre projects supported by Singapore have been completed in several Indian states, and scientific.

SC says some restraint expected from people holding high offices

NEW DELHI : The Supreme Court on Monday said that one has to be sensitive and restraint should be maintained when somebody holds high office when the top court was dealing with a plea seeking transfer of the trial in the 2015 cash-for-vote case against Telangana Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy outside the state.

A bench of Justices BR Gavai and KV Viswanathan remarked that this issue should be dealt sensitively and said that for somebody who holds such a high office, some restraint is expected from them.

Meanwhile, Revanth Reddy's counsel and Senior Advocate Mukul Rohatgi stated that the CM had issued an apology over his statement against the top court order granting bail to K Kavitha. The top court had taken a strong exception to Reddy's statement over the top court granting bail to Kavitha. A day after Revanth Reddy expressed an unconditional apology and said he regretted the statements reflected in the press reports. He also said he has the highest regard and full faith in the Indian judiciary.

Meanwhile, today Senior Advocate Aryama Sundaram, appearing for the petitioners, said that the Telangana Chief Minister was also holding the home portfolio and none of the investigative agency officers have been examined in the matter. He also apprised that the court decision related to it has been taken by the home ministry.

Senior advocate Rohatgi for Reddy said the 25 witnesses had already been examined and half of the trial was almost done. Senior Advocate Sundaram countered and said none of them were material witnesses.

Meanwhile, the court was apprised of the interlocutory application file by the petitioner, which was raised by Revanth and has encouraged the Telangana Congress party to circulate the posters/banners to lower the dignity of the court in depicting the order copy of the top court and pictures of the leaders of a few political parties by creating confusion in the minds of the general public about the independence of the judiciary.The top court had also asked Revanth to file a reply on the issue in two weeks and adjourn the matter.The top court also remarked that the court and lawyers are dragged by the publishing photos of lawyers.

On Thursday, the Supreme Court was irked over Telangana Chief Minister Revanth Reddy's statement that he gave after the top court granted bail to BRS Leader Kavitha's bail plea. The top court also remarked that the judiciary doesn't interfere in the sphere of the legislature and the same respect applies to the legislature too.

Revanth Reddy reportedly raised doubts over Kavitha getting bail in five months when Manish Sodia got it after 15 months and Kejriwal is yet to get it.

The court was dealing with a plea filed by Guntakandla Reddy and others seeking a transfer of trial from Telangana to Bhopal in Madhya Pradesh.

In the plea filed through advocate P Mohith Rao, Guntakandla Reddy said, "That most of the prosecution witnesses were examined in Chief and the Accused No. 1 (Revanth Reddy), being the Chief and Home Minister for the State of Telangana, can directly influence the de facto complainant and officers, pressurising them to defer/resile from their earlier statements and further to depose false and there is every possibility.

mock, saying that one cannot reach the corridors of power by painting 'diyas' on walls. We are those who painted 'lotus' on walls with such confidence that we knew, one day the 'lotus' painted on walls will be painted on hearts of the people," PM Modi said.

He said BJP is the only political party that is following the democratic process.

"This is the only political party in India that is following the democratic process while expanding its work, and continues to improve to live up to the expectations of the people," he said.

"Several generations have invested their lives into this party, then today the party has made its place in the hearts of the people," he added.

PM Modi also turned emotional while recalling the struggle of party workers. "Our party workers used to protest against the those in power for the issues of people. So they kept going to and coming out of jail. 50 years ago, People of Jan Sangh were doing 'Satyagraha' in Ahmedabad and so many people were jailed just for agitating. One of the women workers who went to jail, spent a month in jail with her 9-month-old baby. That's how BJP reached here...and those people who committed this crime...they had so much greed for power," he said.
